Our ambitions for FY25

As we gear up for the upcoming financial year, we're excited to share with you our ambitious plans to drive both your business and ours forward. As a member of the DCC family, we're proud to be part of an organisation which is 16,000 strong, has been listed on the FTSE 100 index since 1994, and has footprint in 22 countries. Our 4,200 employees across 22 countries are what makes us Exertis! We enable people and businesses to grow and progress. Discover insights from our senior leaders below, outlining their expectations for the upcoming financial year.

'The year ahead will see the AI movement build momentum and drive the long-awaited infrastructure refresh cycle. Our industry always has significant inflection points... constantly refreshing itself and shifting right. The next of these is nearly upon us!'

Tim Griffin | CEO of Exertis IT

'I look ahead to 2024 with such optimism because of the greater strength of Commercial execution we display as a business. Armed with an array of tools based on better data, our teams are consistently making more informed decisions, leading to improved outcomes.'

Michael Sudlow
Chief Financial Officer

'I'm filled with optimism for the year ahead, buoyed by the strength and the reach of our Retail Team, under-pinned with strong financials and industry-leading logistics agility along with our advantageous position in the market!'

Michaela DeGale
Director of Retail Transformation
